

Save a Window, Plant a Tree

Special Energy Efficiency Session featured at The Historic Preservation Conference in Tucson, June 23

Sponsored by:

The strategies of the International Energy Conservation Code is a simple guide to make existing buildings more energy efficient without changing the appearance. Buildings that conform to the IECC 2009 cost less to operate, are more comfortable, and healthier for the occupants.

Approved for CEU's by the following associations:
NARI, ASHI, HAHB, USGBC, ASID, AIA, BPI

*In Partnership with the 9th Annual Arizona Historic Preservation Conference June 22-24, 2011
Marriott University Park Hotel, 880 East Second Street - Tucson, Arizona 85719*

Location and Time:

Thursday, June 23

2-4PM

Canyon C

Marriott University Park Hotel

880 East Second Street

Tucson, Arizona 85719

Cost: $50

Door Prize:

- All participants receive a free tree to plant at home, compliments of Lowe's

Register at:
tecworkshop.com

